

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT
(To Prospectus dated September 1, 2022)V2X, Inc.*Common Stock

The selling shareholder identified herein is offering 2,000,000 shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“common stock”). We are not selling any shares under this prospectus supplement and we will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares by the selling shareholder.

Certain of our directors and executive officers have indicated an interest in purchasing shares of our common stock in this offering. However, because indications of interest are not binding agreements or commitments to purchase, the underwriters could determine to sell to such individuals (or such individuals could determine to purchase) fewer or no shares in this offering.

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”), under the symbol “VVX.” On September 3, 2024, the last reported sale price for our common stock on the NYSE was $54.53 per share.

Investing in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. Before deciding whether to invest in our common stock, you should carefully consider the risks and uncertainties described under the heading “Risk Factors” on page S-3 of this prospectus supplement, and under similar headings in the documents referenced thereunder, as well as the other information included in the documents that are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) nor any state securities commission nor any other regulatory body has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT

This document is in two parts. The first part is the prospectus supplement, which describes the specific terms of this offering. The second part is the accompanying prospectus, which is part of a registration statement that we filed with the SEC using a “shelf” registration process. The accompanying prospectus provides you with more general information, some of which may not be applicable to this offering. Generally, when we refer to this prospectus supplement, we are referring to both parts of this document combined. This prospectus supplement and the information incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement adds to, updates and, where applicable, modifies and supersedes information contained or incorporated by reference in the accompanying prospectus. You should read this prospectus supplement together with the accompanying prospectus, as well as additional information described under the heading “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference.”

To the extent there is a conflict between the information contained in this prospectus supplement, on the one hand, and the information contained in the accompanying prospectus or any document incorporated by reference herein or therein filed prior to the date of this prospectus supplement, on the other hand, you should rely on the information in this prospectus supplement; provided that if any statement in one of these documents is inconsistent with a statement in another document having a later date — for example, a document incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement — the statement in the document having the later date modifies or supersedes the earlier statement. We have not authorized, and the selling shareholder has not authorized, anyone else to provide you with information other than this. No offer of shares of our common stock is being made in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted.

The information in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein is accurate only as of their respective dates or as of any earlier date as of which such information is given, even though this prospectus supplement may be delivered, or our common stock may be sold under this prospectus supplement, on a later date. Our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects may have changed since those dates. You should carefully read the entire prospectus supplement, as well as the documents incorporated by reference in the prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any applicable “free writing prospectus” prepared by us or on our behalf before making an investment decision.

Unless the context otherwise requires or unless stated otherwise, references in this prospectus supplement to “V2X,” “we,” “us,” “our,” “combined company,” “the Company” and “our Company” refer to V2X, Inc. and all of its consolidated subsidiaries.

Market and Industry Data

This prospectus supplement (and documents we incorporate by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may) includes estimates regarding market and industry data. Unless otherwise indicated, information concerning our industry and the markets in which we operate, including our general expectations, market position, market opportunity and market size, are based on our management’s knowledge and experience in the markets in which we operate, together with currently available information obtained from various sources, including publicly available information, industry reports and publications, surveys, our customers, trade and business organizations and other contacts in the markets in which we operate. Certain information is based on management estimates, which have been derived from third-party sources, as well as data from our internal research.

In presenting this information, we have made certain assumptions that we believe to be reasonable based on such data and other similar sources and on our knowledge of, and our experience to date in, the markets in which we operate. While we believe the estimated market and industry data included in this prospectus supplement (or documents we have incorporated by reference) is generally reliable, such information is inherently uncertain and imprecise. Market and industry data is subject to change and may be limited by the availability of raw data, the voluntary nature of the data gathering process and other limitations inherent in any statistical survey of such data. In addition, projections, assumptions and estimates of the future performance of the markets in which we operate are necessarily subject to uncertainty and risk due to a variety of factors, including those described in “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.” These and other factors could cause results to differ materially from those expressed in the estimates made by third parties and by us. Accordingly, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such market and industry data or any other such estimates.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. It does not contain all of the information that may be important to you and your investment decision. For a more complete understanding of us and this offering, you should read and carefully consider this entire prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the more detailed information set forth under “Risk Factors” in this prospectus supplement and under similar headings in the documents reference thereunder, as well as the other information included in the documents that are incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement. Some of the statements in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are forward-looking statements. See “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.”

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risk. Prior to making a decision about investing in our common stock, you should carefully consider the specific factors discussed below and under the heading “Risk Factors” in the accompanying prospectus, together with all of the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement. You should also consider the risk factors related to our business and operations described in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 (the “Annual Report on Form 10-K”), which is incorporated by reference herein. See “Where You Can Find More Information” in this prospectus supplement. If any of the following risks or uncertainties actually occur, our operations could be materially and adversely affected. In that case, the market price of our common stock could decline and you may lose all or a part of your investment. The risks and uncertainties we have described therein and below are not the only risks that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our operations.

Risks Related to this Offering and Ownership of Our Common Stock

The trading price of our common stock may be volatile and could decline significantly and rapidly regardless of our operating performance.

The trading price of our common stock may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations in response to many risk factors listed in this section and those included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and others beyond our control, including:

- the number of shares of our common stock made available for trading;
- sales or expectations with respect to sales of shares of our common stock by holders of our common stock;
- actual or anticipated fluctuations in our business, financial condition and results of operations;
- variance in our financial performance from, or failure to otherwise meet, projections, forecasts or estimates, including expectations of securities analysts;
- changes in our revenue;
- announcements by us or our competitors of significant business developments, acquisitions or new offerings;
- our involvement in any litigation;
- our sale of our common stock or other securities in the future or the perception that such sales might occur in large quantities;
- changes in senior management or key personnel;
- the trading volume of our common stock;
- changes in the anticipated future size and growth rate of our market; and
- general economic, political, regulatory and market conditions.

Historically, the stock markets have experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations from time to time that have affected and continue to affect the market prices of equity securities of many companies. In the past, companies that have experienced volatility in the market price of their securities have been subject to securities class action litigation. We may be the target of this type of litigation in the future, which could result in substantial costs and divert our management’s attention.

If securities or industry analysts do not publish or cease publishing research or reports about us, our business or our market, or if they change their recommendations regarding our common stock adversely, the trading price of our common stock and trading volume could decline.

The trading market for our common stock will be influenced by the research and reports that industry or securities analysts publish about us or our business. We do not control these analysts. If any of the analysts who cover us downgrade our common stock or our industry, or the stock of any of our competitors, or publish inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, the price of our common stock may decline. If analysts cease coverage of us or fail to regularly publish reports on us, we could lose visibility in the financial markets, which in turn could cause the price or trading volume of our common stock to decline and our common stock to be less liquid.

Investment funds affiliated with American Industrial Partners continue to have significant influence over us, which could limit your ability to influence the outcome of key transactions, including a change of control.

Upon the completion of this offering, investment funds affiliated with American Industrial Partners will beneficially own approximately 54.4% of our outstanding common stock (or approximately 53.4% if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares in full). For as long as such investment funds continue to beneficially own a substantial percentage of the voting power of our outstanding common stock, they will continue to have significant influence over us. For example, through their indirect ownership of a majority of our voting power and the provisions set forth in the amended and restated articles of incorporation, the amended and restated bylaws and the shareholders' agreement, investment funds affiliated with American Industrial Partners have the ability to designate and elect a majority of our directors, and to approve certain fundamental actions by us, including with respect to mergers or other business combinations, the acquisition or disposition of assets, the incurrence of additional indebtedness, the issuance of additional shares of common stock or other equity securities, the repurchase or redemption of shares of our common stock and the payment of dividends, in each case subject to the terms of our amended and restated articles of incorporation, amended and restated bylaws and the shareholders' agreement.

Your percentage ownership in us may be diluted by future issuances of capital stock, which could reduce your influence over matters on which shareholders vote.

Our board of directors has the authority, without action or vote of our shareholders, to issue shares of common stock up to 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock, and with the prior written consent of the selling shareholder, to issue all or any part of our authorized but unissued shares of common stock greater than 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock, including shares issuable upon exercise of options, or shares of our authorized but unissued preferred stock, subject to the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange and the terms of our shareholders' agreement. Issuances of common stock or voting preferred stock would reduce your influence over matters on which our shareholders vote and, in the case of issuances of preferred stock, would likely result in your interest in us being subject to the prior rights of holders of that preferred stock.

There may be sales of a substantial amount of our common stock after this offering by our current shareholders, and these sales could cause the price of our common stock to fall.

As of September 1, 2024, there were 31,191,628 shares of our common stock outstanding. Following completion of this offering, approximately 54.4% of our outstanding common stock (or approximately 53.4% if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares in full) will be held by investment funds affiliated with American Industrial Partners. Sales of substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market after this offering, or the perception that such sales will occur, could adversely affect the market price of our common stock and make it difficult for us to raise funds through securities offerings in the future. In addition, we have registered shares of our common stock that are reserved for issuance under our 2014 Omnibus Incentive Plan, as amended.

In connection with this offering, certain of our officers and each of our directors and the selling shareholder have entered into a lock-up agreement with the underwriters, which restricts their sales of our common stock for a period of 45 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, subject to certain exceptions.

These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: our ability to submit proposals for and/or win all potential opportunities in our pipeline; our ability to retain and renew our existing contracts; our ability to compete with other companies in our market; security breaches, cyber-attacks or cyber intrusions and other disruptions to our information technology and operation; our mix of cost-plus, cost-reimbursable, firm-fixed-price and time-and-materials contracts; maintaining our reputation and relationship with the U.S. government; protests of new awards; economic, political and social conditions in the countries in which we conduct our business; changes in U.S. or international government defense budgets; government regulations and compliance therewith, including changes to the U.S. Department of Defense procurement process; changes in technology; our ability to protect our intellectual property rights; governmental investigations, reviews, audits and cost adjustments; contingencies related to actual or alleged environmental contamination, claims and concerns; delays in completion of the U.S. government budget; our success in extending, deepening, and enhancing our technical capabilities; our success in expanding our geographic footprint or broadening our customer base; our ability to realize the full amounts reflected in our backlog; impairment of goodwill; misconduct of our employees, subcontractors, agents, prime contractors and business partners; our ability to control costs; our level of indebtedness; terms of our credit agreements; inflation and interest rate risk; geopolitical risk, including as a result of recent global hostilities; our subcontractors’ performance; economic and capital markets conditions; our ability to maintain safe work sites and equipment; our ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel; our ability to maintain good relationships with our workforce; our teaming relationships with other contractors; changes in our accounting estimates; the adequacy of our insurance coverage; volatility in our stock price; changes in our tax provisions or exposure to additional income tax liabilities; risks and uncertainties relating to integrating and refining internal control systems post-merger; changes in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; and other factors described in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” and elsewhere in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, and described from time to time in our future reports filed with the SEC.

In addition, statements that contain “we believe” and similar statements reflect our beliefs and opinions on the relevant subject. These statements are based on information available to us as of the date of this prospectus supplement. While we believe that this information provides a reasonable basis for these statements, this information may be limited or incomplete. Our statements should not be read to indicate that we have conducted an exhaustive inquiry into, or review of, all relevant information. These statements are inherently uncertain, and investors are cautioned not to unduly rely on these statements.

You should read this prospectus supplement and the documents that we reference with the understanding that our actual future results may be materially different from what we expect. We qualify all of our forward-looking statements by these cautionary statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock in this offering by the selling shareholder. The selling shareholder will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of its shares of our common stock. See “Selling Shareholder.”

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

The following table sets forth information as of September 1, 2024 with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling shareholder. The amounts and percentages of shares beneficially owned are reported on the basis of SEC regulations governing the determination of beneficial ownership of securities. Under SEC rules, a person is deemed to be a “beneficial owner” of a security if that person has or shares voting power or investment power, which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be a beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days of the determination date. Securities that can be so acquired are deemed to be outstanding for purposes of computing such person’s ownership percentage, but not for purposes of computing any other person’s percentage. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of the same securities, and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which such person has no economic interest.

Applicable percentage of beneficial ownership before this offering is based on 31,191,628 shares of common stock issued and outstanding as of September 1, 2024. Applicable percentage of beneficial ownership after this offering assumes the sale of 2,000,000 shares of common stock by the selling shareholder.

We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the SEC. Except as indicated by the footnotes below, we believe, based on the information furnished to us, that each person or entity named in the table below has sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock that he, she or it beneficially owns, subject to applicable community property laws.

Name of Beneficial Owner	Beneficial Ownership Before this Offering		Common Stock to be Sold in this Offering	Beneficial Ownership After this Offering
	Shares of Common stock	%	Shares of Common Stock	Shares of Common Stock	%

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS FOR NON-U.S. HOLDERS OF COMMON STOCK

The following is a discussion of U.S. federal income tax considerations generally applicable to the ownership and disposition of our common stock by Non-U.S. Holders (defined below). This discussion is based on the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, rulings and official pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), and judicial decisions, all as in effect on the date of this prospectus supplement and all of which are subject to change and differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion addresses tax considerations only for holders that purchase our common stock pursuant to this offering and that hold such stock as a “capital asset” as defined in the Code (generally, property held for investment). Moreover, this discussion is for general information only and does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to specific investors in light of their particular circumstances or to investors subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as banks, insurance companies, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, tax-exempt entities, dealers in securities, traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting or persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to our common stock being taken into account in an “applicable financial statement,” brokers, expatriates, entities or arrangements treated as partnerships or other pass-through entities or arrangements for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and partners or members therein, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, persons that own, or are deemed to own, more than 5% of our outstanding common stock (except to the extent specifically set forth below), persons that hold our common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated investment, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax or persons deemed to sell our common stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code), all of whom may be subject to tax rules that differ significantly from those summarized below. The discussion below does not address U.S. federal estate and gift tax considerations, the Medicare tax or the effect of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law.

PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF OUR COMMON STOCK, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL TAX LAWS, NON-U.S. TAX LAWS OR INCOME TAX TREATIES.

For purposes of this discussion, a “Non-U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of our common stock, other than an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, that is not a U.S. Holder.

A “U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of our common stock that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is or is treated as:

- a citizen or individual resident of the United States;
- a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust (1) if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over its administration and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all of its substantial decisions, or (2) that has in effect a valid election to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership (or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds our common stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A partnership holding our common stock and each of its partners should consult their tax advisors as to the tax consequences of holding and disposing of our common stock.

Distributions on Our Common Stock

Distributions (if any) on our common stock will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the Company’s current or accumulated earnings and profits as determined under the Code. Dividends received by a Non-U.S. Holder with respect to our common stock will generally be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a rate of 30% unless such dividends are effectively connected with a Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if an applicable income tax treaty so requires, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States) or the Non-U.S. Holder provides proper certification of its eligibility for a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty (generally on IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E). Distributions that exceed the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits will reduce the Non-U.S. Holder's basis in its common stock (but not below zero). Any excess will be treated as gain realized on the sale or other taxable disposition of our common stock and will be treated as described under "— Sale or Other Disposition of Our Common Stock" below.

Non-U.S. Holders should expect that the gross amount of any distributions with respect to our common stock will generally be subject to U.S. withholding tax unless the applicable withholding agent elects to withhold a lesser amount based on a reasonable estimate of the amount of the distribution that would be treated as a dividend.

Dividends that are effectively connected with a Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if an applicable income tax treaty so requires, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States) will generally not be subject to U.S. withholding tax if the Non-U.S. Holder complies with applicable certification and disclosure requirements (generally by providing an IRS Form W-8ECI). Instead, such dividends will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates generally applicable to U.S. Holders and, in the case of corporate Non-U.S. Holders, may also be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30%.

Sale or Other Disposition of Our Common Stock

A Non-U.S. Holder will generally not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other disposition of our common stock, unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and if an applicable income tax treaty so requires, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States), in which case the gain will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular graduated rates generally applicable to U.S. Holders and, in the case of corporate Non-U.S. Holders, may also be subject to branch profits tax at a rate of 30%;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year of the disposition, and certain other requirements are met, in which case the gain, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses in certain circumstances, will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30%; or
- the Company is, or at any point during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of disposition and the Non-U.S. Holder's holding period has been, a United States real property holding corporation ("USRPHC") for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, if our common stock is "regularly traded on an established securities market," the Non-U.S. Holder held, directly or indirectly, at any time during such period, more than 5% of the issued and outstanding common stock, in which case the gain will generally be subject to tax on a net income basis as gain that is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States as described in the first bullet above.

The Company believes it is not and has not been a USRPHC at any point during the past five years, and it does not anticipate that it will become a USRPHC in the foreseeable future.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act and the regulations and administrative guidance promulgated thereunder ("FATCA"), withholding at a rate of 30% will generally be required on payments of dividends in respect of our common stock held by or through certain foreign financial institutions (including investment funds), unless such institution otherwise qualifies for an exemption or (i) enters into, and complies with, an agreement with the IRS to report, on an annual basis, information with respect to interests in, and accounts maintained by, the institution that are owned by certain U.S. persons and by certain non-U.S. entities that are wholly or partially owned by U.S. persons and to withhold on certain payments, or (ii) if required under an intergovernmental agreement between the U.S. and an applicable foreign country, reports such information to its local tax authority, which will exchange such information with the U.S. authorities. An intergovernmental agreement between the United States and an applicable foreign country, or other guidance, may modify these requirements. Similarly, in certain circumstances, dividends in respect of our common stock held by an investor that is a non-financial non-U.S. entity that does not qualify under certain exemptions will generally be subject to withholding at a rate of 30%, unless such entity either (i) certifies that such entity does not have any “substantial United States owners” or (ii) provides certain information regarding the entity’s “substantial United States owners,” which we will in turn provide to the IRS. Accordingly, the entity through which an investor holds our common stock will affect the determination of whether withholding under the rules described in this paragraph is required. Prospective investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible implications of these rules on an investment in our common stock.

They may exercise that option for 30 days from the date of this prospectus supplement. If any shares are purchased pursuant to this option, the underwriters will severally purchase shares in approximately the same proportion as set forth above.

The underwriting agreement provides that the underwriters’ obligation to purchase shares of common stock depends on the satisfaction of the conditions contained in the underwriting agreement including:

- the obligation to purchase all of the shares of common stock offered hereby, if any of the shares are purchased;
- the representations and warranties made by us and the selling shareholder to the underwriters are true;
- there is no material adverse change in our business or the financial markets; and
- customary closing documents are delivered to the underwriters.

The offering of the shares by the underwriters is subject to receipt and acceptance and subject to the underwriters’ right to reject any order in whole or in part.

Commissions and Expenses

The following table summarizes the underwriting discounts and commissions the selling shareholder will pay to the underwriters. The underwriting fee is the difference between the price to the public and the amount the underwriters pay the selling shareholder for the shares. Such amounts are shown assuming both no exercise and full exercise of the underwriters’ option to purchase 300,000 additional shares.

	Without option to purchase additional shares exercise	With full option to purchase additional shares exercise
Per Share	$ 2.52	$ 2.52
Total	$5,040,000	$5,796,000

The underwriters have advised us that the underwriters propose to offer the shares of common stock directly to the public at the public offering price on the cover of this prospectus supplement and to selected dealers, at such offering price less a selling concession not in excess of $1.512 per share. After this offering, the underwriters may change the offering price and other selling terms.

The expenses of this offering that are payable by us are estimated to be approximately $500,000 (excluding underwriting discounts and commissions).

The underwriters have also agreed to reimburse us for certain expenses incurred by us with respect to this offering.

Indemnification

We and the selling shareholder have agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, liabilities arising from breaches of the representations and warranties contained in the underwriting agreement and to contribute to payments that the underwriters may be required to make for these liabilities.

Stabilization and Short Positions

The underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, short sales and purchases to cover positions created by short sales, and purchases for the purpose of pegging, fixing or maintaining the price of our shares of common stock, in accordance with Regulation M under the Exchange Act.

- Stabilizing transactions permit bids to purchase the underlying security so long as the stabilizing bids do not exceed a specified maximum.
- A short position involves a sale by the underwriters of shares in excess of the number of shares the underwriters are obligated to purchase in this offering, which creates the naked short position. In a naked short position, the underwriters may close out any short position by purchasing shares in the open market.
- Covering transactions involve purchases of our common stock in the open market after the distribution has been completed to cover short positions.

These stabilizing transactions, covering transactions and penalty bids may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of our common stock. As a result, the price of our common stock may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected on NYSE or otherwise and, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

Neither we nor the underwriters make any representation or prediction as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of our common stock. In addition, neither we nor the underwriters make any representation that the underwriters will engage in these stabilizing transactions or that any transaction, once commenced, will not be discontinued without notice.

Electronic Distribution

In connection with this offering, the underwriters or certain securities dealers may distribute prospectuses by electronic means, such as e-mail. In addition, the underwriters may facilitate Internet distribution for this offering to certain of its Internet subscription customers. The underwriters may allocate a limited number of shares for sale to its online brokerage customers. A prospectus in electronic format is being made available on an Internet web site maintained by the underwriters. Other than the prospectus in electronic format, the information on the underwriters' web site and any information contained in any other web site maintained by the underwriters is not part of the prospectus or the registration statement of which the prospectus forms a part.

Listing

Our common stock is listed on NYSE under the symbol "VVX."

Stamp Taxes

Purchasers of the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may be required to pay stamp taxes and other charges under the laws and practices of the country of purchase, in addition to the offering price listed on the cover page of this prospectus supplement. Accordingly, we urge you to consult a tax advisor with respect to whether you may be required to pay those taxes or charges, as well as any other tax consequences that may arise under the laws of the country of purchase.

Conflicts of Interest; Other Relationships

The underwriters and their affiliates are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include securities trading, commercial and investment banking, financial advisory, investment management, investment research, principal investment, hedging, financing and brokerage activities. The underwriters and their affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory and investment and commercial banking services for us and our affiliates, for which they may receive customary fees and expenses, and may currently be, or may in the future be, lenders to us and our affiliates under facilities and other loans that we and our affiliates, have entered into, or may in the future enter into from time to time.

In addition, in the ordinary course of business, the underwriters and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments including serving as counterparties to certain derivative and hedging arrangements and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers, and such investment and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the issuer. The underwriters and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or instruments and may at any time hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Indications of Interest

In addition, certain of our directors and executive officers have indicated an interest in purchasing shares of our common stock in this offering. However, because indications of interest are not binding agreements or commitments to purchase, the underwriters could determine to sell to such individuals (or such individuals could determine to purchase) fewer or no shares in this offering.

Notice to Prospective Investors in the European Economic Area

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are not a prospectus for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended (the "Prospectus Regulation"). This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus have been prepared on the basis that any offer of shares of common stock in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the "EEA") will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Regulation from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of shares of common stock. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an offer in any Member State of the EEA of shares of common stock which are the subject of the offering contemplated in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for us or any of the underwriters to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus

Regulation in relation to such offer. Neither we nor the underwriters have authorized, nor do we or they authorize, the making of any offer of shares of common stock in the EEA in circumstances in which an obligation arises for us or the underwriters to publish a prospectus for such offer.

In relation to each Member State of the EEA, no offer to the public of shares of common stock which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus may be made in that Member State of the EEA other than:

- to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined under the Prospectus Regulation;
- to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined under the Prospectus Regulation), subject to obtaining the prior consent of representatives for any such offer; or
- in any other circumstances falling within Article 1(4) of the Prospectus Regulation, provided that no such offer of the shares of common stock shall require us or any underwriters to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Regulation or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression “offer” in relation to the shares of common stock in any Member State of the EEA means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and any shares to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for any shares of common stock.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is part of a registration statement on Form S-3 that we filed with the SEC, utilizing a “shelf” registration process. Under this process, selling shareholders named in this prospectus or in one or more supplements to this prospectus may sell shares of our common stock from time to time. Each time any selling shareholder not named herein sells shares of our common stock under the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, such selling shareholder will provide a copy of this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, as required by law. Any applicable prospectus supplement may add, update, or change information contained in this prospectus.

The selling shareholders may offer and sell shares of our common stock directly to purchasers, through agents selected by the selling shareholders, or to or through underwriters or dealers. A prospectus supplement, if required, may describe the terms of the plan of distribution and set forth the names of any agents, underwriters, or dealers involved in the sale of shares of our common stock. See “Plan of Distribution.”

You should read this prospectus together with any applicable prospectus supplement, as well as additional information described under the heading “Where To Find Additional Information.” You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement and any applicable “free writing prospectus” prepared by us or on our behalf. We have not authorized, and no selling shareholder has authorized, anyone else to provide you with different or additional information. No offer of shares of our common stock is being made in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted.

The information in this prospectus, any accompanying prospectus supplement, and the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein is accurate only as of their respective dates or as of any earlier date as of which such information is given, even though this prospectus may be delivered, or our common stock may be sold under this prospectus, on a later date. Our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects may have changed since those dates. You should carefully read the entire prospectus, as well as the documents incorporated by reference in the prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement and any applicable “free writing prospectus” prepared by us or on our behalf before making an investment decision.

References in this prospectus to the terms “the company,” “V2X,” “we,” “our” and “us” or other similar terms mean V2X, Inc., an Indiana corporation, unless we state otherwise, or the context indicates otherwise.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. This summary does not contain all information that you should consider before investing in our common stock. You should read the following summary together with the more detailed information regarding V2X, our common stock being registered hereby, our financial statements and notes thereto and our risk factors, before deciding whether to purchase shares of our common stock from the selling shareholders.

Our Company

V2X is a leading provider of critical mission solutions and support to defense clients globally, formed by the 2022 merger of Vectrus, Inc. and Vertex to build on more than 120 combined years of successful mission support. The company operates as one segment and delivers a comprehensive suite of integrated solutions across the operations and logistics, aerospace, training and technology markets to national security, defense, civilian and international clients.

We were incorporated under the laws of the State of Indiana in February 2014. Our principal executive offices are located at 2424 Garden of the Gods Road, Colorado Springs, CO 80919. Our telephone number is (719) 591-3600 and our website address is www.vectrus.com. Information contained on, or accessible through, our website is not incorporated by reference into this prospectus (except for our SEC reports incorporated under “Incorporation of Certain Information by Reference”), and you should not consider information contained on, or accessible through, our website as part of this prospectus. Reference to our website is made as an inactive textual reference.

The Offering

Our common stock offered by the selling shareholders	18,591,866 shares
Our common stock is listed on the NYSE under the symbol	V VX
Use of proceeds	All of the shares of our common stock being offered under this prospectus are being sold by the selling shareholders. Accordingly, we will not receive any proceeds from the sale of these shares.

Background

On March 7, 2022, we entered into the merger agreement. Pursuant to the merger agreement, on July 5, 2022, Andor Inc. merged (the “first merger”) with and into Vertex, with Vertex surviving the first merger as a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of V2X, and immediately following the first merger, Vertex merged (the “second merger,” and together with the first merger, the “mergers”) with and into Andor LLC, with Andor LLC surviving the second merger as a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of V2X. Upon the completion of the mergers, 18,591,866 shares of our common stock were issued to the selling shareholders.

On December 6, 2021, Vertex Aerospace LLC, an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Vertex, acquired Raytheon Technologies Corporation’s Mission Critical Solutions and Training Services Business (the “TTS business”) pursuant to the Share and Asset Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated as of September 8, 2021, by and among Vertex, Vertex Aerospace LLC and Raytheon Technologies Corporation. The TTS business was comprised of Raytheon Professional Services and certain assets within the Raytheon Intelligence and Space portfolio.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risk. Prior to making a decision about investing in our common stock, you should carefully consider the specific factors discussed below and under the heading “Risk Factors” in any prospectus supplement, together with all of the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement. You should also consider the risk factors related to our business and operations described in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, Part II, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 1, 2022, and under the captions “Risks Relating to the Combined Company Following the Mergers” and “Risks Relating to Vertex’s Business and Operations” beginning on pages 29 and 39, respectively, of our Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on May 9, 2022, which are incorporated by reference herein. See “Where To Find Additional Information” in this prospectus. The risks and uncertainties we have described therein and below are not the only risks that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our operations.

If the selling shareholders immediately sell their shares of our common stock received in the mergers after such shares are no longer subject to resale restrictions our common stock price could decline.

The issuance of our common stock in connection with the mergers could have the effect of depressing the market price for our common stock, through dilution of earnings per share or otherwise. Once the registration statement, of which this prospectus is a part, is declared effective, all of the shares of our common stock issued to the selling shareholders in connection with the completion of the mergers will be available for resale in the public market, subject to restrictions on sales contained in the shareholders agreement, dated as of July 5, 2022, among the company and the selling shareholders (the “shareholders agreement”). As of the date of this prospectus, approximately 61.07% of the outstanding shares of our common stock are held by the selling shareholders.

In addition, the selling shareholders may decide not to hold the shares of our common stock they received upon completion of the mergers. Other selling shareholders, such as funds with limitations on their permitted holdings of stock in individual issuers, may be required to sell the shares of our common stock that they received upon completion of the mergers. Such sales of our common stock could have the effect of depressing the market price for our common stock and may take place promptly following the effectiveness of the registration statement, of which this prospectus is a part. In addition, future events and conditions could increase the dilution that is currently projected, including adverse changes in market conditions, additional transaction and integration related costs and other factors such as the failure to realize some or all of the benefits anticipated in the mergers. Any dilution of, or delay of any accretion to, our earnings per share could cause the price of shares of our common stock to decline or grow at a reduced rate. These sales may also make it more difficult for us to sell equity or equity-linked securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate to raise funds through future offerings.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENT INFORMATION

This prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein contain, and any prospectus supplement and the documents incorporated therein may contain, forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and, as such, may involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results contemplated by the forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus are subject to additional risks and uncertainties further discussed under “Risk Factors” in this prospectus, in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, Part II, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 1, 2022, and under the captions “Risks Relating to the Combined Company Following the Mergers” and “Risks Relating to Vertex’s Business and Operations” beginning on pages 29 and 39, respectively, of our Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on May 9, 2022, as well as our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements, related notes, and the other information appearing elsewhere in our filings with the SEC, and are based on information available to us on the filing date of this prospectus. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this prospectus. New risks and uncertainties arise from time to time, and we cannot predict those events or how they may affect us. We claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 for all forward-looking statements.

We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. “Risk Factors” of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 1, 2022, and under the captions “Risks Relating to the Combined Company Following the Mergers” and “Risks Relating to Vertex’s Business and Operations” beginning on pages 29 and 39, respectively, of our Definitive Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on May 9, 2022, and described from time to time in our future reports filed with the SEC.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The selling shareholders will make offers and sales pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale or other disposition by the selling shareholders of the shares of our common stock covered hereby, or interests therein. The selling shareholders will pay any expenses incurred by the selling shareholders for brokerage, accounting, tax or legal services or any other expenses incurred by the selling shareholders in disposing of these shares. We will bear all other costs, fees and expenses incurred in effecting the registration of the shares covered by this prospectus, including, without limitation, all registration fees and fees and expenses of our counsel and our independent registered public accounting firm.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

We are registering for resale an aggregate of 18,591,866 shares of our common stock that may be sold by the selling shareholders set forth herein. Such shares were issued by us to the selling shareholders in connection with the closing of the mergers pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and the related agreements.

At the closing of the mergers, the company entered into a registration rights agreement with the selling shareholders named below (the “registration rights agreement”), pursuant to which the selling shareholders were granted certain registration rights. We are registering the shares covered hereby pursuant to the registration rights agreement.

At the closing of the mergers, the company also entered into the shareholders agreement, which among other things, (1) provides Vertex Aerospace Holdco LLC (“Vertex Holdco”) and its affiliates to which shares of our common stock are transferred by a selling shareholder (the “Vertex Holdco Parties”) with director nomination and committee designation rights, (2) governs how each selling shareholder will vote its shares of our common stock with respect to certain matters, (3) requires certain actions of the company to be approved by the Vertex Holdco Parties, (4) provides the Vertex Holdco Parties with certain information rights, (5) limits transfers of our common stock by the selling shareholders, (6) limits certain acquisitions of our common stock by the Vertex Holdco Parties, (7) restricts the ability of the Vertex Holdco Parties to solicit proxies in the election of directors for such periods indicated therein, and (8) provides that the company will elect to be a “controlled company” for purposes of applicable listing standards for so long as it qualifies to do so.

In accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, effective as of the closing of the mergers, the company’s board of directors became comprised of eleven members, five of whom were appointed by Vertex Holdco (John “Ed” Boyington, Jr., Dino M. Cusumano, Lee E. Evangelakos, Joel M. Rotroff and Neil Snyder).

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC, and includes voting or investment power with respect to our common stock. To our knowledge, the selling shareholders have sole voting and investment power with respect to their respective shares of our common stock, unless otherwise noted below. The selling shareholders may sell some, all or none of their respective shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus from time to time. We do not know how long the selling shareholders will hold their respective shares of our common stock covered hereby before selling them. Other than the merger agreement, including the registration rights agreement and the shareholders agreement, we currently have no agreements, arrangements or understandings with the selling shareholders regarding the sale of any of the shares of our common stock being offered hereunder. As of the date of this prospectus, Vertex Holdco owns a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the offer and sale, from time to time, by the selling shareholders of up to 18,591,866 shares of our common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of our common stock by the selling shareholders.

Once issued and upon effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, our common stock beneficially owned by the selling shareholders covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold from time to time by the selling shareholders. The term “selling shareholders” includes donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors in interest selling securities received after the date of this prospectus from a selling shareholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other transfer. The selling shareholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. Such sales may be made on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and under terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price or in negotiated transactions. Each selling shareholder reserves the right to accept and, together with its respective agents, to reject, any proposed purchase of securities to be made directly or through agents. The selling shareholders and any of their permitted transferees may sell their securities offered by this prospectus on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which our common stock is traded or in private transactions.

Subject to any limitations set forth in the registration rights agreement, the selling shareholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling our common stock offered by this prospectus:

- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer so engaged will attempt to sell our common stock as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- an over-the-counter distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- settlement of short sales entered into after the date of this prospectus;
- agreements with broker-dealers to sell a specified number of our common stock at a stipulated price per share;
- in “at the market” offerings, as defined in Rule 415 under the Securities Act, at negotiated prices, at prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices related to such prevailing market prices, including sales made directly on a national securities exchange or sales made through a market maker other than on an exchange or other similar offerings through sales agents;
- directly to purchasers, including through a specific bidding, auction or other process or in privately negotiated transactions;
- through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;
- through a combination of any of the above methods of sale; or
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

In addition, any shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the selling shareholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling shareholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

The selling shareholders also may transfer our common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors-in-interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus. Upon being notified by a selling shareholder that a donee, pledgee, transferee or other successor-in-interest intends to sell our common stock, we will, to the extent required, promptly file a supplement to this prospectus to name specifically such person as a selling shareholder.

To the extent required, the shares of our common stock to be sold, the names of the selling shareholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter and any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of shares of our common stock, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling shareholders may also sell shares of our common stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge our common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these shares. The selling shareholders may also enter into options or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

In offering our common stock covered by this prospectus, the selling shareholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who execute sales for the selling shareholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of those securities may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, our common stock must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states shares of our common stock may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling shareholders and their affiliates. In addition, to the extent applicable we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the selling shareholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling shareholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.
